Subject: Termination of Division Directive, H.E. Davis Construction Inc.,
Levan Chicken Creek Mine, M/023/016, Salt Lake County, Utah

Dear Mr. Christofferson:

This letter is being provided to you in order to document the permitting status of the Chicken Creek mine. A Division of Oil, Gas, and Mining Directive was issued on December 18, 2003, which was superseded on January 25, 2005, by a Division issued Cessation Order MC-05-04-01. This action was a product of the operator failing to comply with the Division Directive.

On April 5, 2005, the Division held an Informal Conference examining the facts of the Violation, for the Cessation Order. As a result of that conference, the Cessation Order was vacated on April 14, 2005, by Mark Mesch, Acting Associate Director. Therefore, the Division Directive is considered effectively terminated per the outcome of the April 14, 2005 informal hearing.

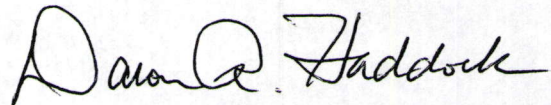

While the Division Directive has been satisfied, there are still remaining issues that require your further attention. Your large mine Notice of Intent is still pending approval and has not yet been okayed by the Forest Service. Prior to mining on Forest Service property, you will need their approval.
